Elizabeth Acevedo

NY TIMES BESTSELLING NOVELIST

"In nearly every poem, there is at least one universal truth about adolescence, family, gender, race, religion, or sexuality that will have readers either nodding in grateful acknowledgment or blinking away tears." –Horn Book

Poet, novelist, and National Poetry Slam Champion, Elizabeth Acevedo was born and raised in New York City, the only daughter of Dominican immigrants. Her poetry is infused with Dominican bolero and her beloved city's tough grit. From the border in the Dominican Republic, to the bustling streets of New York City, Acevedo considers how some bodies must walk through the world as beastly beings. How these forgotten myths are both blessing and birthright.

03 Colors

PRIMARY

Blue Flower Arts is naturally at home with blues. “Blue Flower Blue” is the core brand color and should be used first and most prominently across materials.

Gradations provide versatility for web contexts, particularly functional elements with multiple interaction states.

SECONDARY & ACCENT

This palette complements the primary blues, providing emphasis and variety.

TEXT & NEUTRALS

This palette is utilitarian. Its purpose is to allow flexibility, legibility, and versatility across web and print contexts.

TEXT & BACKGROUND PAIRINGS

Text and background pairings are designed with accessibility and cohesion in mind. All pairings provide high enough contrast for screen legibility, and limiting pairings creates a more refined brand ecosystem.

04 Accent Elements

FLORAL VARIATION

These stylizations of the logo forms are multipurpose accents that can be used as graphic elements, either solid or as layer masks for photographs. The organic nature of the shapes lends itself to be used creatively, because variation, multiplicity, and fluidity appear natural, not disruptive, to the brand ecosystem.
